

DEVIL MAY CARE

Standing alone now,
In a familiar dream of mine
Only the darkness all around
And the shadows.

Drink up the sorrow
Drink up the memory of love
Many are gone now
So are the people that I love.

Cold, shadows around
And the darkness growing
Time running away
And the Devil's calling.

Dream consuming my mind
In a labyrinth of shadows.
Death and blood on my hands
But I need to breath,
To live, to give, to love...

Secrets forever
Hidden away from any light.
He is the keeper
And so am I.

He wants to play now,
But I've no fear to stand my ground,
Walls getting closer,
Making me feel as if I'd drawn...

Cold shadows around
And the darkness growing
Time running away
And the Devil's calling.

Dream consuming my mind
In a labyrinth of shadows
Death and blood on my hands
But I need to breathe
To live, to love
Love...
Love...

Voice so familiar
Whispering gently in my ear
Telling it's over,
Waiting for me to take the deal,

Cold shadows around
And the darkness growing
Time running away
And the Devil's calling.

Dream consuming my mind
In a labyrinth of shadows
Death and blood on my hands,
But I need to keep going, living, loving
I find a way, I find a way, find a way
Out, out,
Out, out.

Out, out
Out.
